DUBLIN CASTLE,

5th August, 1893.

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th instant, forwarding, for submission to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Twenty-fifth Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

D. HARREL.

The Deputy Keeper,

Public Record Office,

Four Courts.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH REPORT OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE BARON
HOUGHTON,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. On the 5th August, 1892, Sir Bernard Burke, the Keeper of the State Papers, resigned that office, and on the 5th October, 1892, your Excellency was pleased to appoint me, under Section 10 of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, to fill the vacant post without any additional salary.
2. By the retirement of Sir Bernard Burke, which was followed, to the regret of all who knew him, by his death in the succeeding December, the State Paper Office was deprived of one who had directed and largely shared in its work for close on forty years. Under his direction the former contents of the Tower, the Birmingham Tower collection of early Plea and Pipe Rolls, the Parliamentary collection, and the books and papers of the late Record Commission were restored to order and removed to the Public Record Office. Under him the State Paper collection has been methodised, indexed, and made accessible. There are many memorials by which the name of Sir J. Bernard Burke will ever be honorably preserved, but, as Keeper of the State Papers, his fittest memorial is formed by the 3,000 carton boxes of State Papers, which, following his adoption of the French system for preserving Records, line the shelves of the Record Tower. The twenty-four Annual Reports printed as appendices to the Reports of the Deputy Keeper of the Records relate in detail his work on the Records and papers since the passing of the Public Records Act in 1867.

3. On the 10th September, 1892, Mr. Richard C. Maxwell was appointed to the Junior Clerkship, vacant on the retirement of Mr. J. M. Clarke.

4. In pursuance of the Order of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in Council of the 22nd May, 1891, the Records of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace of the counties of Armagh, Cavan, Down, Londonderry, Mayo, Meath, Queen's county, and Wicklow have been transferred, assorted, and duly deposited in this Department, and Schedules of them will be found below, vide paragraphs 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50. Those of Sligo have been transferred, but having come up in bundles not answering to the labels placed upon them, and largely "miscellaneous," the assortment of them has not yet been completed. Tipperary and Wexford are in process of transfer, and those of the county and city of Limerick, it is hoped, will be transferred during the coming year.

From the Peace Office, Green-street, an increment to the year 1871 has been transferred, vide paragraph 40.

5. The Right Reverend Dr. Gregg, Bishop of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, has deposited here one of the oldest registry books in Ireland, being the Registry and Will Book of the diocese of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross for the years 1571 to 1612, to be placed amongst the other Records of the late Diocesan Registry of Cork. This volume contains copies of Wills, grants of Probate and Administration, Sentences, Collations, Presentations, Appearances, and Citations between the years 1571 and 1612, and was described in the Report of Mr. Henry Heard, Registrar of Cork and Ross, to the late Record Commission of Ireland in 1812, as then in his custody.

State Paper Office.

6. No papers have been received from the Chief Secretary's Office during the year, nor have any Records been transferred to the Public Record Office. At the request of the Under-Secretary a considerable mass of books and papers was received early in the year by Sir Bernard Burke from the offices of the Government Prisons Board, viz. —

7. The searches required by the Chief Secretary's Department have been fewer than in recent years, numbering 194.

8. The Draft Calendar to the Civil Petitions has been continued by Mr. Maginn to the letter W, and was nearly completed at the close of the year.

9. The Calendar of British Departmental Correspondence has been carried down to No. 5,096, 13 January, 1757, by Mr. Jeered.

10. On my appointment as Keeper of the State Papers, Mr. James Mills, Senior Clerk of the Public Record Office, was placed in charge of the Records in the Tower. In addition to the oversight of the searches and other work of the office, Mr. Mills has commenced the arrangement of a large collection of papers referred to in Sir Bernard Burke's Fifteenth Report, p. 182, as then taken out of "74 huge wooden boxes." These had been very imperfectly catalogued and placed, as they came from the boxes, on the shelves of the lowest story of the Tower in a room commonly known as "the Storeroom," and in the recesses of rooms Nos. 1 and 6, to await further arrangements. They consist largely of the letters and papers of the former Military and Yeomanry Departments of the Chief Secretary's Office.

11. Up to the end of 1892 the following classes of papers have been cleaned, arranged, tied in brown paper wrappers, labelled, and catalogued.

51. There have been received here from the Quit Rent Office 82 Deeds affecting the rights of the Crown, of which 76 are conveyances of Crown and Quit Rents.

Intern Fittings.

52. Six bays, hitherto without fittings, have been fitted with uprights and galvanised iron shelving, in a similar style to the fittings originally erected.

53. The attention of the Board of Works has been directed to the insecure condition of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, from the proximity of wooden fittings and open fire-places, and measures are being considered, with a view to a remedy.

54. The wooden fittings in the Strong Room have been removed and replaced with iron. A Milner's patent fire-resisting door has been erected, the open fire-place taken away, and hot water fittings, in connection with the heating of the Record Treasury, supplied.

55. Locked glass cases have been provided for the display to the public of interesting documents, so as to obviate, as far as possible, any risks that may arise from the handling of the Records.

56. The usual diagram, showing the changes and increments of Records in the Record Treasury during the year, is annexed.

Sorting and Arrangement of Records.

57. Four sacks and eight bundles removed from the Diocesan Registry of Cork, labelled "Cork Court Papers," have had their contents classified, arranged under their dates, and made up into seventy-three covered parcels; and one sack of Raphoe Diocesan Papers has been similarly treated, forming eleven parcels.

58. The contents of a sack, containing Miscellaneous Papers of the Prerogative Court, comprising some seven hundred separate Cause Papers, and fourteen parcels of other Records, have been arranged, and the Cause Papers interpolated amongst the series of Prerogative Cause Papers.

59. Eight bundles from the late Rolls Office of mixed Chancery and Equity Exchequer Pleadings have been interpolated into their respective series.

60. The contents of two thousand two hundred and nine parcels of Records have been stamped, in addition to the Records stamped from day to day, when brought from the Record Treasury into the Public Search Room for inspection.

61. The Records transferred from the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties of Armagh, Cavan, Down, Londonderry county and city, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, and Wicklow, and the increment from the Clerk of the Peace of the city of Dublin, have been sorted and arranged into ten thousand two hundred and fifty-nine bundles, covered with brown paper, and deposited in their final destinations.

62. The Wills and Administrations removed from the Principal and District Registries of the Court of Probate have been arranged in dictionary order, and the former put into envelopes in a continuous series for the year.

63. In the Bookbinding and Repairing Department there has been but little done in the way of repairing from the pressure of other work; but 53 volumes of Parish Registers, 50 of Inventions Patents, and 254 Miscellaneous Volumes have been bound.

Indexing and Calendaring.

64. The Draft Index to the Marriage Licence Bonds of the ^{24th Rep.} _{so par.} Diocese of Elphin has been arranged in dictionary order and engrossed to the end of letter C. The draft of those for the Diocese of Cloyne continued to letter M, Cork and Ross to 1778, Armagh completed, Clogher from 1750 completed, and Waterford and Lismore finished from 1725. Draft Indices have been made to the Marriage Licence Bonds for Kildare, Meath, and Raphoe, and those made for Cashel and Emly, Killala and Achonry, and Killaloe compared.

65. Draft Indices have been made to the Marriage Licences in two Leighlin Grant Books, 1813-1823 and 1833-1856, to a Meath Grant Book, 1763-1822, and to a Newry Grant Book, 1804-1848, and the like have been made and compared to the Marriage Licences in the Kildare Grant Book, 1802-5, and in the Killala Grant Book, 1814-1820, and to the Killala Grant Book of 1800-1857.

66. The arrangement in dictionary order of the draft slips for the ^{25th Rep.} _{so par.} Index to the Grant Books of the Consistorial Court of Dublin has been completed, and a fair copy made for the printer of the entries prior to 1800 as far as the letter C. It is proposed to bring this Index out in print, as a separate appendix, in the course of next year.

67. An Index to the Cork, Cloyne, and Ross Registry and Will book, 1591-1612, presented by the Bishop of Cork, has been made and engrossed in the book.

68. The Prerogative Will and Grant Index, 1844-46, has been engrossed and compared.

69. The Ecclesiastical Collections removed at various times from the Diocesan Registries have been methodised and entered in a Detailed Index, which has proceeded as far as page 207.

70. A Draft Index to the Calendars of Deeds of Christ Church Cathedral has been formed, but owing to the pressure of other matters it will not be possible to complete it for printing until next year.

71. The Consolidated Detailed Index to the Records of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace has been advanced to page 318, that of the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, to page 360, the Chancery collection, volume 2, to page 476, the Testamentary Collection to page 92, and the volume of Miscellaneous Collections to page 324.

72. An Index has been made to the 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, and 25th Reports of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, and printed as Appendix III.

Appendix III.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Acts,

38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, and 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58.

73. The Reports of Parochial Officers having the custody of their Parish Registers, under Retention Orders granted by the Master of the Rolls (now 536 in number), were, for the year 1892, furnished in full.

74. Damp was reported in only two parishes, and the same measures which were successful in other cases were recommended to be adopted.

75. As it was apparent from the Reports that many Parochial Officers were unaware of their duties in regard to the Records in their custody under Retention Orders, instructions were drawn up and approved of by His Honor the Master of the Rolls (see Appendix II.), and printed copies sent to every Parochial Officer, endorsed with a transcript of the Order and Schedule of the Records of the Parish to which it was sent.

76. A Vestry Book of the Parish of Owenduff, 1788-1808, which was reported missing in 1891 (see 23rd Report, page 17), has been recovered. The Register for 1808-1845 has not, however, as yet come into the hands of the present Incumbent. A Vestry Book of Killybegs, which was returned in the Inventory furnished to this Department in 1876, and was stated to contain entries of Baptism for 1787-1796, could not be found by the Incumbent when the Records became attachable, and a memorandum to that effect was appended to the Schedule of the Order made in this case.

Appendix II.

77 Parishes, the Records of which have been transferred to the Public Record Office in the year 1892 :—

In addition to the above, fees have been remitted to the amount of £52 2s. 6d. on copies made for Public Departments, which would otherwise have been a charge on the public.

81. I beg to acknowledge donations of seven volumes of Record publications by the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls in England, and two volumes by the Keeper of the Records of Scotland. The late Mr. W. F. Littledale presented to the Library of the Department the "Appendix to Dugdale," and the Count de la Poer, "An Historieal Memoir of the Family of Poher, Poer, or Power."

82. Literary inquirers have made a large number of searches during the year, chiefly in matters of genealogy; the Records were also examined, fee free, by persons interested in the following subjects:—

Histories of Kilkenny, Navan, the Dioeeses of Elphin, Kilmaeduagh, Limerick, and Ossory, the Royal Longford Militia, the Irish Yeomanry, the Colours of the British Army, Trinity College, Dublin, New South Wales, the Churchees of county Clare, St. Bride's Parish, Dublin, and the Lordship of Muskerry.

Dated at the Public Record Office,
Four Courts, Dublin, this 31st day of May, 1893.

J. J. DIGGES LA TOUCHE,
Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland.

I humbly certify to Your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

A. M. PORTER,
Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX I.

REGULATIONS MADE BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE LORD LIEUTENANT OF IRELAND CONCERNING THE GRATUITOUS ADMISSION OF LITERARY INQUIRERS TO THE STATE PAPERS, RECORDS AND DOCUMENTS IN THE RECORD TOWER, DUBLIN CASTLE.

13th January, 1893.

1st.—Applicants shall address a letter of application to the Keeper of the State Papers, stating generally the object of their research, and shall also if needful attend the Keeper of the State Papers personally thereto and give such further explanation as may be required; and thereupon the Keeper of the State Papers shall, if satisfied with the statement and explanation, issue permission in writing empowering the Applicant, or any trustworthy Agent or Transcriber on his behalf, to inspect all State Papers, Records, and Documents, and their Indices, and also to make copies or extracts, without payment of fees.

2ndly.—All applications before mentioned shall be entered in a Book and be reported to the Lord Lieutenant once a year.

3rdly.—A Book shall be kept, in which the Keeper of the State Papers shall enter a note or particular of the State Papers, Records or Documents called for, inspected, or used by the applicants. This Book is to be considered as confidential and not to be shown to the public without the express permission of the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Secretary.

4thly.—In case of any impropriety of conduct or abuse of the privilege the Keeper of the State Papers shall forthwith withdraw the permission granted and report the same to the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Secretary.

5thly.—The Keeper of the State Papers shall not be required to examine, correct, or certify any copy or extract made or taken by the applicant, but the applicant may with the help of his Agent or Transcriber examine the same with the Record.

6thly.—No applicant can be authorized to inspect any State Paper, Record or Document in the State Paper Department, Dublin Castle, bearing date subsequent to the 1st January, 1790, without the special written permission of the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Secretary.

Applicants will understand that the Keeper of the State Papers and persons employed in the Record Tower are not permitted to act as Record Agents, so that it will not be possible for the officers to assist them beyond the production of the documents and giving a general explanation, if needed, of their character and nature.

Approved,

HOUGHTON.

APPENDIX II.

INSTRUCTIONS TO INCUMBENTS OF PARISHES HAVING CUSTODY OF PAROCHIAL RECORDS, UNDER ORDERS OF THE RIGHT HON. THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS.

1. The Records should not be removed from their Safe except for the purpose of making a search or copy.
2. They should not be taken from the Building in which the Safe is erected without previous permission having been obtained through the Public Record Office.
3. If they should suffer from damp or require binding, the Public Record Office should be informed without delay.

Note.— In cases where the Safe is situate in a building liable to extreme variations of temperature, it is recommended that the Records should be wrapped in thick brown paper, and raised from the floor of the Safe, so as to promote a current of air around them.

4. In the event of an Incumbent ceasing to discharge duty in the parish, he should inform the Public Record Office of the fact, stating to whom he has committed the custody of the Records.
5. Communications to the Public Record Office should be addressed to the Deputy Keeper, Public Record Office, Four Courts, Dublin, and for the above purposes need not be prepaid.
6. Incumbents should see that the Records in their charge correspond with the Schedule endorsed on the Order permitting their retention in the parish.
7. Marriage Register Books since 1844, subject to the Registrar-General, and Parochial Books commenced since 31st December, 1870, are not under the superintendence of the Master of the Rolls.

J. J. DIGGES LA TOUCHE,

Deputy Keeper.

I approve of the above instructions,

A. M. PORTER,
Master of the Rolls,
